DR. TALBERT IS OPTIMISTIC

He Condemns Cheap Music As Part Cause of Social Impurity.

"The term, 'mean Christian,' is mutually excluded, and should no more be used than 'black whiteness' or 'square roundness,'" said Dr. F. H. Talbert, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., in his sermon at the Baptist Church Sunday morning.

Doctor Talbert cited as the most valuable phrase which he had obtained from four years study of philosophy the following thought: "The dogmatist is nearly always right in what he affirms and nearly always wrong in what he denies." Know you're right but don't deny the other fellow's viewpoint, is Doctor Talbert's belief.

And Doctor Talbert is an optimist and believes the world is better than it was in the "good old days." He thinks that following Paul's injunction to seek whatsoever things are good, whatsoever things are honest, and whatsoever things are pure will lead to the development of a contagious beauty in life. He denounced cheap music as the chief assistant of local impurity.
